SUNNY SIDE OF THE BAY

Nestled in the hills 45 minutes east of San Francisco, the Tri-Valley enjoys an average of 300 days of sunshine a year, making it “the sunny side of the Bay.”

But it's not just the incredible weather that makes it a popular getaway for Silicon Valley millionaires. The confluence of three valleys holds four cities: Pleasanton, Livermore, Dublin and the town of Danville. The award-winning wineries, charming downtowns and shops in the Tri-Valley will leave you refreshed and inspired.

DAY OFF IDEAS

Livermore Valley Wine Country

Featuring more than 50 award-winning wineries, Livermore Valley is one of the country's oldest winemaking regions. It set the stage for California winemaking by providing the original Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon clones that are planted throughout the state today.

Lost World Adventures

Enjoy a wide variety of dinosaur-themed entertainment attractions on an immersive journey through lost ages of the past. Black light laser tag, mini golf, a super-sized play structure and an arcade are all under one roof. Enjoy the Bay Area's many sporting events on large screens while your children get the high-energy play they need.

San Francisco Premium Outlets

Teeming with high-end designer and brand-name goods, the San Francisco Premium Outlets has become the premier shopping destination in the Bay Area. After its recent expansion, this is California's largest outlet mall.

Super Franks

Created “By Parents, For Parents,” Super Franks is the ultimate indoor family entertainment center. Parents can relax in loungers while the little ones enjoy the six themed areas filled with a zip line, foam pits, inflatable play structures and more. Working up an appetite? Super Franks also has a Starbucks and full-service restaurant to suit all ages.

Tri-Valley Beer Trail

Once home to one of the largest hop farms in the world (some say the largest), the Tri-Valley is returning to its roots with an emerging craft beer scene. As California’s newest beer trail, it features a growing collection of 16 establishments.

Umigo Go-Kart Racing

Challenge your driving skills in go-karts that reach up to 40 miles per hour. Umigo’s tracks are altered every couple of weeks to keep things interesting. Suits and helmets are provided, and no experience is necessary.
