

Now You're Cooking with Culinary Angels

Calling all Chefs!

Join Us for a Fun Cooking Competition Benefitting Culinary Angels

Here's How it Works:

Join other local restaurant chefs and Culinary Angel's Chef, in a fun cooking competition on Sunday, September 27th from 10:00-1:00.

You will be asked to create a healthy dish using a few key ingredients from Culinary Angel's pantry and to bring some of your own that reflect your restaurant's flare.

Judges will include a food editor, a local wine maker, and a dietician. TV personality and KPIX Channel 5 news reporter Juliette Goodrich will be the MC.

The event will be taped in a beautiful backyard garden in Sunol.

Saturday, October 10th from 6:30-8:00, the event will be shown during a live virtual audience.

Viewers will have the chance to participate in a live auction and will be hosted by TV30/KKIQ personality Mel McKay.

Chef Advantage

- Together we will encourage people to "Dine with the Angels" and pick up a to-go meal to eat while viewing our fun October event!
- Use your talent to develop a delicious, nutrient rich meal that also showcases your restaurant's cuisine.
- Take advantage of public relations, social media exposure, + website exposure to thousands.
- Help a charitable organization increase the number of meals they provide to people in need.
- Have interactive fun during these trying times.

Judging Criteria

The judges will be looking for the chef who has created a dish that is healthy and also best represents what their restaurant is known for.

- Uses the most basket ingredients.
- Reminiscent of your restaurant's flare.
- Visually pleasing/Tastes delicious/Well plated.
